

Frank M. Weeks Yacht Yard

Boat Building, Tradition & Maritime History

Established in 1898, Frank M. Weeks Yacht Yard is one of the oldest boatyards in the United States, and is the oldest extant business in the Village of Patchogue. On Sunday, February 16th, Kevin Weeks, third generation owner and grandson of the yard's founder, renowned local boat builder Frank M. Weeks, will talk about the boat yard's rich and colorful history, while also discussing the many maritime traditions still in use there to this very day. There will be displays of historic photographs, tools and documents, as well as complimentary copies of the short history Kevin authored on the occasion of the boat yard's 120th anniversary in 2018. Come spend part of a winter afternoon learning about an important part of Long Island's maritime history and heritage.

Sunday, February 16, 2020

Light Refreshments: 12:30 - 1:00pm

Lecture: 1:00 - 2:00pm

Long Island Maritime Museum
88 West Avenue, W. Sayville, 631-854-4974

